

Events

7 things to do in Vancouver today: Tuesday, April 3

Daniel Chai

Apr 03, 2018 5:00 am  1,378

Spencer Finlay / Instagram

Kick off your work week with an interesting event happening in Vancouver today, April 3. From the Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival to the Canucks games, here are seven events you should check out.

For more things happening around town be sure to check out our events section.

Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival

Spencer Finlay / Instagram

- What: The Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival (VCBF) is Vancouver's signature springtime event. Wake-up from winter hibernation to an explosion of some 41,000 blossoming cherry trees. Originally gifted from Japan in the 1930's, the cherry blossoms now inspire a month of arts and cultural community events. Presented by Vancouver Board of Parks & Recreation and Coromandel Properties.
- When: Tuesday, April 3 to Sunday, April 29, 2018
- Where: Streets and venues all over Vancouver
- Admission: Free to enjoy cherry blossoms all over the city. Tickets for events can be found online

THE MAJOR TOURNAMENT DEALS

EXTENDED

SAVE ON GOLF CLUBS

---

UP TO 20% OFF SIDEWIDE

SHOP NOW

TRENDING

The 2018 NHL Draft Lottery odds are now set for the Vancouver Canucks

Heartfelt worldwide support flows following tragic Humboldt Broncos bus crash