

VANCOUVER MOMEXPLORE VANCOUVER >> SIX SPECTACULAR SPRING FAMILY OUTINGS

Six spectacular spring family outings

Harriet Fancott · Apr 1, 2019, 8:00 AM in Explore Vancouver, Highlight, home-feature 4371 0

First
Share

Share on Facebook

Share on Twitter

Share on Google plus

The warm weather has arrived, and it's high time for a spring family outing. The blossoms are out; Instagrammers and tulip lovers are in heaven, and little train lovers can rejoice, the Burnaby Central Train opens on Good Friday!

Six spring family outings

Hanami – Cherry Blossom viewing

Photo credit: Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival

The cherry blossoms are in full bloom, and the Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival has set its annual spring family blossom affair at VanDusen Gardens for April 13, 14. Experience a Japanese tea ceremony, view culinary demos, enjoy Japanese food, sample premium sake, take a guided walk through the cherry trees, and listen to haiku readings. Plus there are Japanese arts and crafts workshops and demos. PS: Don't miss The Big Picnic at QE Park in the iconic cherry blossom grove.

>> Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival

Community Builders

