

Home
About

Hello Vancity

Events
Fashion
Food
Lifestyle
Tech
Travel
Contact

Blossom Season Around the World

by James Chung · Published April
19, 2017 · Updated April 19, 2017

 Facebook

 Twitter

décor and relaxing ambience provide an ideal oasis after a long day traversing the city. With six restaurants onsite offering a range of cuisine types, guests can dine in traditional style without ever having to leave the property.

Vancouver, Canada

source

As winter begins to fade and spring arrives, Vancouverites and visitors to the city can't miss seeing the beautiful 40,000 cherry blossoms that Vancouver hosts. Each year there are multiple events for the Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival including Bike the Blossoms, Tree Talks and Walks, Plein-Air Blossom Painting, and the Cherry Jam Downtown. The city has an array of parks and activities that help admirers take in the cherry trees' seasonal blossoming.

Where to Stay: The Wedgewood Hotel and Spa is a luxury, boutique hotel that offers a tranquil place to relax after partaking in any of the Cherry Blossom Festival activities. Guests can enjoy a full-service spa, sauna, and fine dining at Bacchus, a luxurious onsite lounge and restaurant. Robson Street, Vancouver's most popular shopping area with numerous restaurants alongside stores, is right around the corner from the hotel.

Kyoto, Japan