KIDS BOOKS

With spring break fast approaching, Vancouver Public Library's reading experts suggest a list of top Canadian picks for kids and teens to read during your next family adventure.

- For kids up to age 7: Dojo Daycare by Chris Tougas, is a delightful tale of a ninja master trying to control the kids.
- For kids ages 7 and up: Seven Dead Pirates by Linda Bailey is the story of a shy boy and the ghosts of seven dead-but-rowdy pirates with a task for him.
- For teens ages 13 and up: The Night Gardener by Jonathan Auxier, is a fabulously creepy read.

BIRTHDAY IN BLOOM

The Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival is celebrating its 10th Anniversary. Reserve a Birthday Blossoms Cherry Tree to plant in your own garden, choosing from a limited quantity of 8 types of flowering cherry trees, $49.99 each. Cherry trees will be available for pick up at VanDusen Botanical Garden. For details visit:

GREENER RIDE

Wonder why BCAA chose the Toyota Prius C Hybrid for the EVO Car Share program? Two big reasons: Affordability and environmental impact. Did you know it generates only one third of the smog-forming emissions produced from a midsize passenger car? Plus, the average commuter will save $3,000 in fuel costs over 5 years.
